A conflict of interest occurs if your loyalties are divided, for example if you or your family or friends have a personal or commercial interest which may interfere, or be perceived to interfere, with the performance of your duties and responsibilities to the National Storage Group, making it difficult to perform your role objectively and effectively. The existence of a conflict of interest is not uncommon. What matters is how we manage the conflict.

To safeguard the confidence of the National Storage Group's key stakeholders in the National Storage Group's integrity, it is paramount that you do not allow personal interests or the interests of family or friends to conflict with the interests of the National Storage Group. You must avoid participating in decisions and activities which may conflict, or be perceived to conflict, with your duties and responsibilities to the National Storage Group.
